Why am I charged sales tax on Internet orders?

Global Direct is registered with your state to collect sales or use tax, as appropriate, on taxable items shipped to your state. Most states require that we tax shipping and handling as well. The passage of the Internet Tax Freedom Act and similar state statutes has no effect on our current obligation to collect such taxes. Please note that sales and use tax collected is remitted by Global Direct to your state taxation authority as required by law. These monies are not retained by Global Direct.
